2008 CONVENTION IS IN FULL SWING!!

The 2007-2008 TJCSAG Convention is FULL swing. We have book the Renaissance Hotel to full capacity. This convention has a set a record number of schools in attendance

We have had wonderful speakers, outstanding breakout sessions as well as AMAZING entertainment.

At time of press we have heard from all candidates running for the 2008-2009. TJCSGA would like to thank each and every school that is running and would like to wish everyone good luck with their campaign.

The 2007-2008 TJCSGA would like to extend their deepest gratitude to every delegate for their diligence in all general assemblies as well as during break out sessions.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.
